LEARNING AND SUPPORT

APPLICATION FOR SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Name:_________________________ Roll call:__________

You can apply to the Learning and Support Team for a special provision in an examination in which situations prevent you from:

- Reading the examination questions and/or
- Communicating exam responses

Examples of these situations are:

- A physical injury or disability
- A reading or writing difficulty
- Or any other diagnosed disability (proof required)

If approved, Special Provisions could include separate supervision, a reader/ writer, rest breaks (away from the exam), food breaks (diabetic), toilet breaks etc.

Reason for application: (please attach any relevant medical documentation)

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Subjects: | Class Teacher | Exam date | Exam time
---|---|---|---

Please return this form to the Front Office to be put in the LAS pigeon hole